

PLANS TO COMBINE BILLS INTO A FEW

Smejkal Would Consolidate Appropriations In Order to Save Time

TO ASK FOR OPINION

Steps Will Be Taken to Put Plan Into Effect If Attorney General Lucey Approves

HOUSE ADJOURNS 'TIL MONDAY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 26.—Chairman Edward J. Smejkal of the house committee on appropriations is working on a plan to cut down, possibly from fifty to seventy-five per cent, the time and work required by the house in consideration of appropriation bills. Attorney General Lucey will be asked next week for an opinion regarding the constitutionality of Mr. Smejkal's plan and if he approves, steps will be taken by the appropriation committee at once to make it effective.

Would Combine Appropriations.
The plan contemplated by Chairman Smejkal is to combine in as few omnibus measures as possible, all the appropriation bills that go through the assembly. Two years ago 108 appropriations bills were passed through both houses. The time consumed a considerable portion of the session. It is believed that if these measures can be legally consolidated into a few, much of the congestion that regularly attends the last weeks of a session may be avoided and many measures will have opportunity to be considered that otherwise would fall by the wayside solely for lack of time for their consideration. Another so-called evil that Chairman Smejkal hopes to reduce to a minimum is the deficiency appropriations which are called for at every session of the legislature to meet shortages existing in the various departments of the state government.

As a consequence of emergency appropriations necessary at this time the legislature will be compelled to shoulder responsibility for between a quarter million and a half million dollars that should have been appropriated two years ago.

Emergency Appropriations Asked.
Following are the emergency appropriations already asked for, to meet deficiencies existing in various funds:

For hog cholera, serum, $10,000.
For the state insurance department, $26,000.
For the industrial board, $29,965.
For the state auditor's department, $4,500.
For state factory inspector's department, $2,453.
For the secretary of state's office, $12,823.12.
For the state public utilities commission, $35,000.
To meet the expense of returning fugitives, $20,000.
For state binding, paper and printing, $100,000.
For employees of the supreme court clerk's office, $4,775.
For the Rock Island state free employment office, $1,700.
For the legislative reference bureau, $17,000.

The foot and mouth appropriations which will probably aggregate considerably more than two million dollars, are additional emergency appropriations, but could not, of course, have been anticipated by the forty-eighth general assembly.

Will Have Hearing Tuesday.

Members of the state board of administration will have a hearing before the committee next Tuesday on the omnibus bill for their department. On the following week representatives of the state university and of the state normal schools will be heard.

A bill providing for a uniform system of text books in all of the public schools of the state outside of Chicago was introduced in the lower house of the legislature today by Representative Hubbard, Democrat of Carrollton.

After a session of only thirty-five minutes, in which the calendar was practically cleaned up, the house adjourned until 5:30 p. m., Monday.

The Hubbard measure will create a text book commission of seven members, six to be named by the governor and one to be the state superintendent of public instruction. Duties of the commission would be to adopt a uniform system of text books for use up to and including the eighth grade of the public schools.

Representative W. J. Graham, Republican of Aledo, offered a bill providing that in counties where no newspaper is published delinquent tax lists shall be printed in the nearest newspaper in the state to the county seat of such county. Another bill by the same author makes the same provision regarding the printing of assessments.

Mrs. J. W. Woods and daughter have returned from a three days visit in St. Louis.

MISSOURI ROADS MAY APPEAL TO COURTS FOR INCREASE IN RATES

Missouri Pacific Head States Action Will be Taken if Increase is Not Granted by Public Service Commission.

St. Louis, Mo., March 26.—President Bush of the Missouri Pacific railroad announced today that the railroad of Missouri would appeal to the courts in their efforts to get increased intra-state freight and passenger rates, if an increase is not granted by the public service commission of this state.

This statement was made by President Bush in a lengthy analysis of the railroad rate situation in Missouri. "We expect the public service commission will grant the relief to which we feel we are justly entitled. Should it fail to do so then necessarily we shall have to resort to the courts, because it takes no expert to demonstrate that with their income cut down below their costs the railroad of the state must have increased rates if they are to continue to exist and serve the people."

"The fact that the financial world will not touch railroad securities of any kind is an all sufficient answer to the contention of the average politician that the earnings are adequate. Anyone can foretell the business paralysis and widespread disaster to the commercial and agricultural interests that will follow a few more receiverships of Missouri railroads."

"We have every reason to believe that the Missouri commission will take a broad view of the case now pending before it and in view of the changed sentiment throughout the state and the country generally toward the railroads, that we shall realize the increase to which we are entitled."

DISTRIBUTIVE TRADE EXPANDS IN NORTHERN HALF OF COUNTRY

Better Weather and the Nearer Approach of Easter are Stimulating Features—Building Shows More Signs of Life.

New York, March 26.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"Distributive trade has expanded in the northern half of the country this week, the stimulating forces being better weather and the nearer approach of Easter. In addition to the outlook has been heightened by a slight speeding up of manufacturing industry and the enlarged speculation at higher prices in cotton and securities. War order business however, still remains the strong point of the entire situation. The great basic facts of soil and crop conditions favor the growing of large crops in this country the coming year. Prices of all agricultural products except cotton are still flatter. It might be pointed out that the reports as to employment are rather better than of late. Building shows more signs of life though gradual improvement only is reportable and lumber stays depressed."

"There is more life visible in the cotton goods industry, a reflection partly of the sharp advances in the raw material; wash fabrics have sold quite freely for summer wear; wool and woolsens seem quieter and there is a better feeling voiced by official observers in the silk trade. Bank clearings for the week aggregate $2,892,223,000, a decrease of 6.4 per cent from last week and of 8.6 from the corresponding week last year."

"Business failures for the week 375, compared with 299 in the like week last year."

GERMANY RATIFIES SALE OF

$10,000,000 OF TREASURY NOTES

NEW YORK, March 26.—The German government it was announced today has ratified the sale of $10,000,000 of German treasury notes to a syndicate of bankers in New York and Western cities. The notes run for nine months, maturing January 1, 1916 and bear interest at the rate of five per cent. The issue was placed at a price between 97 and 98. It is understood that a large part of the notes will be retained by the syndicate, only a small portion being offered at public sale. The proceeds will be applied to purchases already made in this country.

Additional loans for similar amounts are likely to be negotiated by the German government with the understanding that money is to remain in this country.

UPRISING OF KURDS THREATENS MASSACRE

REPORTS OF ATROCITIES IN PERSIA
ST. R. STATE DEPARTMENT

Receive Word of Hanging of Sixty Men Taken from French Mission and Five from American Mission at Gulpashan—Turks to Rush Protection.

Washington, March 26.—Alarming reports of atrocities, including the hanging of sixty men taken from the French mission and five from the American mission compound at Gulpashan, Persia, stirred the state department today to further efforts to obtain protection for American missionaries and refugees in the vicinity of Urumiah, Persia, where an uprising of Kurds threatens a general Christian massacre.

Appeals to Rush Protection.
Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople has been twice appealed to by Secretary Bryan in the last few days to urge the Turkish government to send protection to the imperiled section and it was learned tonight that the state department had received definite assurances from the Turkish government that protection would be rushed to the scene. It was learned through the Turkish embassy that the British ambassador at Tabriz, Persia, not far distant from the Urumiah district acting in conjunction with the American consul, Gordon Paddock, had appealed to Russian commanders in the region near Tiflis to send soldiers to the rescue of helpless Christian populace. The Russian generals, it was said, had delayed action awaiting orders from Petrograd.

In view of present efforts of the American government to have Turkish troops sent to the region it was regarded as probable here that no further effort would be made to get aid from the Russian soldiers.

In view of hostilities between Russia and Turkey, aid from both sides would be impossible. It was suggested also that the consuls at Tabriz were moved to be cautious in getting troops into the district for fear that their coming might precipitate a massacre.

Appeals to Bryan.
The state department tonight had received no official notice of the destruction and outrages at Gulpashan, a few miles from Urumiah, as reported to the Presbyterian board of foreign missions at New York from native Christians in Tiflis. Secretary Bryan received an appeal from the Presbyterian board during the day urging him to do everything possible to relieve the situation.

"We are not prepared to announce what we may or can do in the matter," said the secretary late in the day. He gave assurances, however, that the department was doing everything it could. "I regret," he said had been sent to several American consuls, including Glazebrook at Jerusalem, and Paddock at Tabriz, but nothing had been heard from any of the consuls directly. Word was received by the British embassy as well as the state department that the Turkish government had issued orders for the saving of the Christians.

Additional directions were cabled to Ambassador Morgenthau by the state department tonight forwarding the reports received by the Presbyterian board of foreign missions in New York.

MAKE PROGRESS IN NEGOTIATIONS FOR PAYMENT OF AN INDEMNITY

No Specific Request is Made on Mexican for an Apology on Account of the Flag Incident.

Washington, March 26.—Secretary Bryan announced tonight that satisfactory progress was being made by the United States in its negotiations with the Zapata-Villa government for the payment of an indemnity to the family of John B. McManus, an American citizen murdered recently in Mexico City by Zapata troops. Further inquiry as to what representations had been made by the American government concerning the desecration of the American flag over that no specific request for an apology on account of the flag incident had been made.

In the regret expressed recently by General Palafox, the Zapataista secretary of foreign affairs, however no mention was made of the flag incident.

Mr. Bryan stated today that the situation with respect to the exportation of sisal from Mexico was "improving." Eliseo Arredondo, head of the local Carranza agency, gave out a telegram from General Alvarado at Medera, Yucatan, saying the port of Progreso was open and that the sisal shipments were being regularly made.

NEW SITE FOR ARMY

AVIATION SCHOOL

Washington, March 26.—General Scriven, chief signal officer, just back from an inspection trip to the army aviation school at San Diego, Calif., has prepared a plan for the acquisition of a new site on San Diego Bay for the school. The present site on an island in the harbor is soon to be vacated and the signal corps expects to develop a new plant on the mainland, which will meet the needs of the service.

War News Summarized

Violent fighting in northern Poland and the Carpathians, battles of a less degree in Belgium and France are an air raid over German positions in Lorraine are chronicled by the various war chancelleries. It is in the Carpathians, perhaps that the most ambitious feats at arms are in progress, with the Russians still assiduously endeavoring to make their way through the mountain passes in order to invade Hungary and the Austrians, now reinforced, as strongly trying to hold them back.

Along the middle course of the Niemen river the Germans have made a counter-attack against the Russians and doubtless a severe engagement is in progress. Petrograd says that aside from this battle in which the Germans turned against their oncoming forces there is no essential change in the situation in Poland.

Allied airmen have winged their way over the historic battlefields of Lorraine, dropping bombs. Twelve of these missiles, Paris says, were dropped on the hangars in the aerodrome at Frescati and the railway station at Metz.

According to Berlin three soldiers were killed at Metz, but no material damage was done. Neither Paris or Berlin mentions the damage at Frescati.

The aviators made their escape despite the artillery fire of the Germans.

There has been no confirmation of the reports that allied warships again had invaded the Dardanelles.

WELSH ACCEPTS POSITION AS REFEREE OF HAVANA BATTLE

Will Arrive in Cuba April 2 and Meet Willard and Johnson the Following Day to Give Them Their Instructions.

Havana, March 26.—Jack Welsh of San Francisco today cabled the promoters of the fight between Jack Johnson and Jess Willard for the heavy-weight championship of the world that he accepted the position of referee tendered him last night and that he would arrive here April 2nd, and meet the principals the following day to give them their instructions.

Johnson and Willard after a morning of road work followed their usual afternoon training routine before large crowds of spectators.

Willard worked the harder of the two men today shortening his sparring bouts with his training partners and increasing his road work during which he did much sprinting. His wind and endurance both seemed good. Johnson, an ill willard plan to have hard workouts Sunday when holiday crowds are expected to visit their training camps. Johnson will begin "drying" out next Tuesday. He is now within ten pounds of his ring weight and is fearful that owing to the climatic conditions he will be too finely drawn if he keeps up his present routine.

The big blackman evidently expects a long fight.

Willard is now down to 242 pounds. He plans to lessen his training program after Sunday. The same physician who examined Johnson Thursday went over Willard today and reported that organically, the white man is in excellent shape.

The natives are evincing interest in the coming battle but there is little betting being done. The negroes favor Johnson to win the fight while the tendencies of the whites lean toward Willard.

THREE TIED FOR FIRST.

Chicago, March 26.—Three men are tied for first place in the world's championship three cushion billiard tournament, the last game of which was won here tonight by John Daly of New York by defeating Alfred De Oro of New York, 59 to 46 in 89 innings. Daly had a high run of four and De Oro made five.

William Huey of Chicago and George Moore and John Daly of New York will now have to play two post series games to decide the championship.

VILLA LEADING FORCES.

Washington, March 26.—A telegram from Brownsville, Tex., to the Villa agency here tonight announced that the main body of Villa troops advancing to attack Matamoros reached Rusias, five miles from Matamoros late today.

Private despatches from the border reaching Washington tonight said General Villa himself was in command of the force about to attack Matamoros.

OFF DAY FOR BOWLERS.

Peoria, March 26.—Today was an off day for bowlers at the tournament of the American Bowling Congress. In the singles and doubles only three shifts were made in the ten leaders and at no time during the day's bowling were the leaders in danger of being displaced. In the five the Barry Kettler team of Chicago is still leading with 2,907.

GAVE PLAY AT CHAPIN.

The play "The Dream that came True," was given Friday night by the Delta Sigma class of the Central Christian church at Chapin last night before a good sized audience in the new opera house.

ASSERT EVACUATION OF CZERMOWITZ IMMINENT

OPTIMISTIC BRITISH PRESS SAYS
AUSTRIAN RIGHT HAS BEEN TURNED

London Believes Both Armies in the West are Awaiting Outcome in Carpathians Before Attempting to Strike a Hard Blow—Dardanelles

London, March 26.—(10:55 p. m.)—The comparative inactivity along the whole of the western front leads to the belief in military circles in London that both armies are awaiting the turn of events in the Carpathians before attempting to strike a hard blow. The British are still resting on their victory at Neuve Chapelle—a victory which cost them almost as dearly in men as it did the Germans; and the Germans, though they are reported to be massing troops for a fresh offensive, have undertaken nothing in the west comparable with their rush of last fall.

Say Austrian Right is Turned.

Incredulity is expressed by some of the military observers that the fall of Przemyśl will exert an immediate influence on the warfare in the Carpathians, but the optimistic British press, using the meagre despatches relative to a Russian victory in the Uzok Pass as a basis, says the Austrian right has been turned and that the evacuation of Czernowitz is imminent.

Germany is declared to be sending vast reinforcements into the Carpathians and the newspapers deem it not illogical to conclude that this fighting at the gateway to Hungary is having and will continue to have a marked influence on the German campaign in the east and the west. Rumors of the approaching intervention of Italy coupled with assertions that Austro-German troops are massing along the frontier continue to be prominently printed, but foundation in fact for them is difficult to find.

The situation in the Dardanelles, so far as is known, remains unchanged. The admiralty has vouchsafed no confirmation of the report that the super-dreadnought Queen Elizabeth and other ships, among them the battleship Triumph which recently bombarded Smyrna, have entered the straits. Reports from allied sources are to the effect that German officers are leaving Constantinople and that the situation in the Ottoman capital is gloomy; but there is nothing official to show that the Turks are at all dispirited over the outlook.

The editorials in the Dutch newspapers are more positive than usual in their protests against the sinking of the Dutch Steamer Meder off Beatty Head by a German submarine. A despatch from the Hague says a cabinet council today considered the question of the damage being done to Dutch shipping and that there also were other conferences among government officials. The Dutch government already has sent to Berlin a protest against the alleged attack by a German aeroplane on the Dutch Steamer Zevenbergen.

ONE MAN IS KILLED AND ANOTHER WOUNDED IN ATTEMPTED ROBBERY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Mar. 26.—Two deputy sheriffs trailing a pair of suspicious characters had their suspicions justified tonight when the men walked into a saloon and ordered "hands up". As the deputies started to draw revolvers one of the robbers began firing and when the shooting was over Ben Palermo was dead, Joe Amello lay seriously wounded, Scott Walter, a deputy, had a bullet hole in his coat and one of the highwaymen was a prisoner. He said he was Elmer Webb, came from California and more recently from Little Rock, Ark. The robber who did the shooting got away.

ARREST HOOPESTON EDITOR ON CHARGE OF CRIMINAL LIBEL

DANVILLE, Ills., March 26.—Chester A. Aldrich, editor and proprietor of the Hoopston Herald, was arrested in that town tonight on a warrant charging criminal libel sworn out by F. Cozart, president of the Tishomingo Tie & Stone company of LaFayette, Ind.

He was met at the Danville jail by an attorney who furnished bond. The arrest grew out of articles printed in the Herald concerning the business transactions of the company headed by Cozart in which a large number of LaFayette people are interested.

DROP BOMBS ON METZ.

Berlin, March 26.—Via London, March 27.—(12:30 a. m.)—The following official statement was issued tonight:

"Several hostile airmen dropped bombs on the southern part of Metz today. They were driven away by our artillery fire. Three soldiers were killed but no material damage was done."

MICHIGAN WINS DEBATE.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Mar. 26.—University of Michigan debaters tonight defeated the representatives of the University of Illinois.

Michigan took the affirmative of the proposition that labor unions should be exempt from conviction as combinations in restraint of trade.

GOVERNOR RALSTON TESTIFIES IN TERRE HAUTE FRAUD CASE

Tells of Alleged Haste With Which Redman Sought a Commission as Judge—Government May Complete Its Case Today.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 26.—Governor Samuel M. Ralston, testifying in the Terre Haute election fraud case here this afternoon, told of the alleged haste with which Eli Redman, a defendant, sought a commission as judge of the Vigo circuit court. Lex Droit, who preceded the governor on the witness stand, said he was placed in jail when he did not do the bidding of city Judge Thomas Smith another defendant who Droit testified asked him to question a witness as to his testimony before the federal jury which was investigating the Terre Haute election.

The government may be able to complete its case tomorrow. Governor Ralston testified that Redman, Mayor (Donn M. Roberts, another defendant; and Richard Wernacke, prosecutor of Vigo county, came to his office the day following an election and requested that the governor issue a commission as judge to Redman.

"I told them that the papers did not appear to be in proper form," continued the governor, "and observed that if the papers were regular I would not have issued the commission as it would seem to have been done with undue haste. I also stated that I had received telephone calls from Terre Haute requesting me not to issue the commission to Mr. Redman."

SEARCH FOR AEROPLANE WHICH HAS BEEN FLYING OVER CANAL LOCKS

Maj. General Goethals and Brig. Gen. Edwards Both Detail Men to Look for Machine.

PANAMA, March 26.—The military and canal authorities are investigating a report reaching headquarters from offices of the lock guard that an aeroplane has been seen flying over the Pedro Miguel and the Miraflores locks.

Major General George W. Goethals, governor of the canal zone, and Brig. Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, commander of the United States forces on the Isthmus, both detailed men to make an exhaustive search for the machine which is said to have been seen and heard over the locks last night.

The aircraft is also reported to have flown over Hill 51, which is heavily entrenched and located to the east of the Pedro Miguel locks of whose defenses it forms a part. It is known that a Blériot machine is owned on the Isthmus at present but its whereabouts has not been ascertained.

COMMISSION RULES THAT ROADS SHOULD PRODUCE CORRESPONDENCE

CHICAGO, March 26.—Whether the forty-one western railroad systems which have asking for increased freight rates on certain commodities, approximating an addition to their annual revenue of $10,000,000 could be required to produce correspondence between their officials concerning the proposed increases developed at inter-state commerce commissioner W. M. Daniels' hearing of the case today.

Commissioner Daniels ruled that the roads should produce the letters, taking such precaution to conceal identities as would prevent their being used in any subsequent suits. He held that information in the records and correspondence was relevant in considering the reasonableness of rates.

STATE BOARD TO INVESTIGATE EPIDEMIC IN CHAMPAIGN

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 26.—Dr. S. Clair Drake, secretary of the state board of health, believing that the authorities at the University of Urbana and Champaign are not taking the steps necessary to prevent the epidemic of smallpox in Urbana, which are asking for increased sanitary assistance of the board, Champaign, to investigate the smallpox situation and to take once more by Dr. Drake what is being done by the authorities to prevent the spreading of the disease.

ABANDON HOPE FOR SUBMARINE'S CREW

Rescue Vessels Dragging Ocean Chance Upon Craft at Depth of 50 Fathoms

CALL WRECKING SHIP

Steamers Unable to Tow Diver Near Enough to Shore to Bring Her to the Surface

NO ANSWER TO SIGNALS

HONOLULU, Mar. 26.—The American submarine F-4 lost since yesterday morning off Honolulu harbor, was located this afternoon. Heroic efforts were being made tonight to raise the stricken craft, but after having been submerged for more than thirty hours it was regarded as highly doubtful whether any of her crew of twenty-one men remained alive.

To lift the little vessel to the surface, it was found necessary to send to the Pearl Harbor naval station for a derrick and crane. This involved much loss of time and it was thought probable that the fate of the crew might not be determined until daylight.

Chance Upon Stricken Craft.

Rescue vessels dragging the ocean bed with grappling hooks chanced upon the stricken craft at a depth of 300 feet. Making fast the F-4 naval tug Navajo and the Steamer Makalea began to tow their find—they were not certain that it was the submarine they had hooked—toward shallow water. Quantities of oil came to the surface, proof that it really was the lost vessel. Soon afterward a submarine marker buoy discovered far below the water, removed all doubt that the F-4 had been found.

Just when the marker buoy had been released by the disabled boat there was no means of determining. If the signal was given after the grappling hooks of the rescue vessels took hold then the crew—or at least some of them—were still alive. For more than an hour the tug and the steamer struggled with their unwieldy burden. Soon afterwards it became apparent that it would be impossible to tow the submarine near enough the shore to bring her to the surface and a hurry call was sent to the naval station for a wrecking ship.

Give Up Hope For Crew.
Naval authorities admitted tonight they had given up hope for the F-4's crew.

However, resuscitating apparatus has been dispatched to the scene and every effort will be made to develop any spark of life which may remain.

The general opinion is that the vessel's plates were sprung through the immense pressure of the water at a depth of fifty fathoms and the two officers and nineteen enlisted men aboard have perished. Vessels in the vicinity which are equipped with submarine signal apparatus continued to send out signals, but no answer came.

Cables Navy Department.

Washington, Mar. 26.—Rear Admiral Moore at Honolulu cabled the navy department late tonight that the missing submarine F-4 had been located in 50 fathoms of water, but gave no details.

Hope for the lives of the twenty-one men on board the submarine practically was abandoned by naval officers here on receipt of this news. The F-4 was designed to resist water pressure at a depth of approximately fifty fathoms, or three hundred feet, but it was believed that it would be impossible for her to remain at such a depth for any length of time with safety.

Records show that when the F-4, a boat of the same type, operated on her trial trip for just 10 minutes at a depth of 283 feet her hull groaned and took in water.

Revise List of Crew.

A revision of the official list of the ship's company of the F-4 issued at the navy department tonight added the names of Ensign Timothy A. Parker, Frederick Gilman, first class gunner's mate, and Frank N. Herzog, second class electrician.

The names of James M. Haggett and Albert Mellen were eliminated, corrected records showing these men were not on board.

DUNNE AND SHERMAN

TO ADDRESS BOARD.

Springfield, Ill., Mar. 26.—Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman and Governor Dunne will address the Chicago real estate board on Wednesday on the administration's waterway project, it was announced tonight. The governor said he had received information today that the waterway which would connect Chicago with the Mississippi river would cause a saving in freight rates of more than $1,800,000 annually on lumber shipped to Chicago.

Department Cites Danger to United States if Exports Continue Until New Grain Comes In Washington, D. C., March 22.—Warning that the present heavy exports to European nations of American wheat and flour cannot be continued without endangering the wheat supplies for food and seedling requirements at home was contained today in the department's agricultural bulletin. In the opinion of the department's experts, exportation at the same rate during December, January, and February until the coming of the new wheat would encroach upon normal domestic needs. According to recently published stories bravery is not the only attribute of the Belgians. They seem to have an acute business sense too, for it is announced that when they rebuild their war-ravaged cities, the sites will be changed. The purpose is to retain the ruins of the historic cities as a lure to tourists and the astute Belgians believe that eventually sight-seers will, with passing years, pay enough to offset the enormous losses of the war.

People of Virginia have interested themselves in a non-partisan movement to secure an efficient set of city officials at the election this spring. For the purpose a committee of twenty-five or thirty citizens met and, after discussing plans, announced that a mass meeting would be held at the court house at which men and women would be welcome with the ultimate purpose of nominating and supporting a list of candidates. The plan will be alright if enough citizens get behind it, but if there is a division of sentiment as to who are the "best candidates" some of those classed as undesirable will be likely to run away with the prizes.

Equal Suffragists Plan Wisely.

The Illinois Equal Suffrage Association has not been long in existence, but enough time has elapsed to give its officers a deal of political sense. They have recently announced their determination not to try for an equal suffrage amendment to the Illinois constitution. They evidently realize that each year a number of amendments are proposed and, since the constitution provides that only one amendment may be submitted at a time, opposing interests bring it to pass that none get to a vote. Following a course of wisdom, therefore, the equal suffrage association will content itself with supporting the movement looking toward a constitutional convention and will also lend aid to the bill which proposes a change in the amending clause of the constitution, which will make possible the submission of more than one question at a time.

Register Next Tuesday.

If you expect to vote at the city election April 29 when a mayor and four commissioners and two members of the board of education will be chosen, see that you are registered next Tuesday. Certainly every man and woman in Jacksonville who has the right to vote, should give expression to preferences in this coming election, which is one of the most important ever held in the city. To vote is a duty of citizenship and as registration is necessary to voting, if this is done without the annoyance of an affidavit, registration also becomes a duty. Attend to it next Tuesday.

Our Foreign Policy.

Senator Lewis, in his recent speeches, would have us believe that the United States is in grave danger of getting into war with Japan, England, France, Germany, China and about all the rest of the great powers. The senator says that it is about time for the United States to settle upon a definite foreign policy and all these forebodings are based simply upon his belief that Uncle Sam should take early steps to surrender the Philippines. As a matter of fact the United States has a definite foreign policy and the world at large knew that the taking of the Philippines was not intended as a departure from this policy. The Philippines were taken over, not for the purpose of extending American territory, but because the leaders of this nation saw it as their duty to become a "big brother" to the islands. The great majority of the American people as well as those of other nations, understand that the claims of the United States will be relinquished just as soon as the Philippines are able to manage their own affairs. The United States gave evidence of its sincerity in this line of action, in Cuba.

Missouri Women as Police.

One of the bills passed by the Missouri legislature and which occasioned a prolonged and animated debate, was one authorizing the appointment of policewomen in cities having a population of five thousand or more. Governor Major has just signed the law and it is said that he has thus met the wishes of a large number of Missouri women. The W. C. T. U. vigorously championed the measure and it is said that one of the principal objects is to afford protection to young country women going into the cities in search of employment.

Farmers and the Meat Business.

The meat problem is one we have ever with us and the latest suggestion is that the great horde of deer now being raised in Alaska may eventually have some effect upon the meat supply in the United States. In the last few days, also, there has come a suggestion that in the course of a few years some great changes may take place in the packing industry. It is said that many farmers and stock raisers believe that the packers have not been giving them a fair deal and have been forcing down the prices of livestock to a degree not justified by the supply and demand conditions. They propose, therefore, to provide "municipal slaughter houses" where, under governmental authority cattle may be slaughtered and sold direct to meat markets. This, the farmers argue, would be in line with present day agitation of getting producer and consumer into closer relationship. The growth of farmers' elevators, established because they did not believe they were getting all that was coming to them in the grain business, has been rapid and it is not unreasonable to suppose that something of the same kind might develop in the packing business. Meanwhile it is well to remember that Morgan county farmers are fortunate indeed in having a packing plant located here.

Old Election Customs Pass.

A resolution presented to the meeting of the Civic League Friday lays emphasis upon a very important section of the commission form of government law. This section relates to efforts by candidates to influence voters by promise of jobs or special favors, or by treating. It also is made unlawful for a candidate to employ workers in his behalf for service before election or on election day. Under the new law certain practices are barred which were not looked upon with special disfavor before.

The members of the league yesterday were of the opinion that a great majority of women voters would willingly obey the spirit of the law if only the matter were brought clearly to their notice. The same thing might be said of male voters, since the great majority of them believe in law observance. In their case, however, it is admitted that they must remove from their minds long established election methods and construct a somewhat new code of election ethics.

The resolution also upholds the high standard which the league has previously held aloft, viz: that candidates must be supported solely with reference to their qualification and fitness and for the good of the public service.

Rue Sam for Belgian Relief.

From figures in the latest report issued March 8 by the London office of the commission for relief in Belgium, an idea of the vastness of the work may be obtained. Up to that date the total spent in relief to the inhabitants of Belgium was $25,858,017.23. Of this amount $22,465,713.18 went to the provisioning department and $3,452,304.05 to the benevolent department.

The provisioning department, it is announced, is not a charity department. The food is sold by the commission to those who can afford to pay for it, and in a way it helps to support the benevolent department, from which food is distributed to those who are actually destitute.

In total it was: Antwerp, 24,058; Brabant, 61,578; East Flanders, 28,772; Hainaut, 24,964; Liege, 23,988; Limbourg, 10,762; Luxembourg, 3,222; Namur, 8,992; West Flanders, 9,652; refugees in Holland, 742. The Hague one ton medical stores; a total of 210,824 tons.

The civil population remaining in Belgium is estimated at 7,000,000, of whom about 1,500,000 are entirely destitute. The number of destitute will continue to increase, it is announced, and will require greater contributions for an indefinite time to come.

RYE, SILAGE AND HAY.

On the fifteenth of May, 1914, six acres of green rye were harvested on the farm of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station and placed in the silo. The crop was cut with a grain binder, bound in bundles, and run through a silage cutter in the usual manner. After it had passed through the cutting box, it was blown into the silo and the silage was tramped by two men as it was deposited in the silo. The material was weighed and found to yield at the rate of seven and a half tons of green rye to the acre. It was a thick, heavy crop, four feet high, and just entering the flowering stage. Had it been cut later it would have been richer in nutritive material. The ground was immediately plowed and planted in corn, after the rye had been removed, and it yielded a good corn crop.

During the time that the material was fermenting and forming silage, a disagreeable odor was perceptible around the silo, but when the silage was thrown out of the silo preparatory to feeding, the odor disappeared. It was fed in the feed trough in the barn immediately after milking, and later some of it was fed in a cow shed which it situated in the barn lot. All of it was eaten before noon. The cows consumed from thirty to forty pounds each per day. Several hours elapsed between the feeding of the silage and the next milking, and due to this system of feeding it did not taint the milk. No moldy silage was found in the silo.

The rye was used in July and August. Because of the long drought at that time there was very little pasturage. This green succulent silage served to maintain the milk flow at a high level during the summer. The dairyman should supply summer silage with the same regularity that he feeds silage during the winter. —Kentucky Experiment Station.

RUMORS STATE GERMAN RAIDER EITEL IS PREPARING TO DEPART

One Report Says Cruiser Actually Had Left Her Dock and was Putting Out to Sea—Stories are Proved Groundless.

Washington, March 26.—Rumors
from Newport News, reached Washington late today that the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, the German raider docked there for repairs after her commerce destroying cruise, was preparing to depart. One report said the cruiser actually had left her dock at the ship yard and was putting out to sea.

All these stories were proved groundless, however, as the Prinz Eitel was at her dock tonight and repair work was said still to be in progress. The immigrant passengers aboard the ship were removed yesterday and this fact, together with a growing belief that the time limit allowed the ship for remaining in port is drawing near, probably gave rise to the reports.

Government officials positively refuse to discuss in any way the time given the Eitel to repair or interna as to make public such information would violate neutrality.

The vessel has now been seventeen days at Newport News. She should have quit the port within twenty-four hours of her arrival if in seaworthy condition but she has been allowed to remain to make repairs and dock and clean.

CIVIC LEAGUE PLANS FOR FURTHER WORK

BY-LAWS ADOPTED OUTLINE POWERS OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES.

Child Labor Bill is Favored—Will Ask Legislators to Support Constitutional Convention Plans—Proposed Resolutions Call Attention to Commission Form Rules Governing Election Pledges by Candidates.

A meeting of the Civic League was held Friday afternoon at the public library. The interest in the membership has in municipal affairs was evidenced by the large attendance. One of the main matters considered was the adoption of by-laws, which consist of six brief articles. Some slight changes were made in the by-laws suggested by the committee with the purpose in view of giving somewhat less power to the executive committee, making it obligatory to refer practically all matters to the whole membership of the league. Another change makes it possible for three members as well as the president to call a meeting of the executive board.

Mrs. J. H. Danskin presided at the meeting and Mrs. Reed was secretary.

The league went on record as favoring the action of the state board of equal suffrage in the effort to secure a constitutional convention and for a modification of the amending clause of the present constitution. Favorable action was also taken in endorsement of the child labor bill which is now before the Illinois assembly. Mrs. J. M. Coons read the resolution with reference to the equal suffrage association and Mrs. A. L. Adams presented the resolution relative to the child labor law. Mrs. Danskin explained the plan of suffrage association with reference to the amending law. Mrs. Adams explained that one provision of the proposed law changes the labor age from 14 to 16 and also makes it unlawful to employ persons under 21 years of age for the delivering of telephone or telegraph messages after 9 p. m. She said that the telephone and telegraph companies were opposing this feature of the law but that it was being largely supported by women from the standpoint of morality as now boys are often sent into very undesirable quarters in the cities as messengers.

The Proposed Anti-Tuberculosis Tax. Mrs. Adams also told the league of the action of the anti-tuberculosis society in their efforts to have the city take advantage of the means provided in the Glacklin law whereby it is possible to levy a 1-mill tax for the support of anti-tuberculosis work. Mrs. Adams said that the tax would be very small, indeed, for each property holder, and that the sum raised would not be great. The association has no idea of attempting to build a sanitarium but believes that with the $2,500 which would be available from this tax that it would be possible to have a tent colony for children affected with tuberculosis during the summer months. As it is now not nearly all of the children can be cared for at the open air school and the fear is that during the summer those that have been treated and cared for will go back in condition. In other words the improvement in health made by these children is the result of proper diet sufficient rest and general wholesome surroundings. If these are stopped for the summer period there is danger that the ground gained may be lost. With a child of tubercular tendency the right food and conditions maintained for a year or more will overcome the tubercular tendency permanently, but if the period is less than a year, the advantage will be greatly lessened if, during the vacation months, the child returns to the former unhealthy surroundings.

Seek Rigid Election Law Observance. Mrs. David Reid presented a resolution purposing to call attention of voters, particularly women, to the section in the commission form of government act which makes it unlawful for any candidate for office to make any pledge or promise to influence voters, to make any gifts, or to employ any paid workers. Mrs. Reid presented the resolution and its adoption was moved by Miss Mary Johnson. Subsequently Mrs. E. P. Kirby made a motion that the resolution be laid on the table as she thought a discussion when a larger representation of the membership was present would be desirable. Mrs. U. G. Woodman spoke in favor of immediate action. The motion to lay on the table was lost but later Mrs. Reid said that she appreciated the position taken by Mrs. Kirby and that she would move that action be deferred until a meeting could be held next Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock and this was concurred in. Mrs. Reid's purpose is evidently to bring to pass that women shall come into the list of voters with a thorough understanding as to the meaning of the commission form act in the particular mentioned. She said in her comment that she knew of a number of women who were paid to work at the polls at the primary election for certain candidates, and she knew also of various infractions of the law by both men and women. Mrs. Reid expressed the belief that these infractions were rather the result of a lack of familiarity with the law than from any other cause, and it was for this reason that she believed it would be a salutary thing for the league to go on record and by discussion and agitation give publicity to this portion of the law and so tend to have an influence in purifying election conditions.

The By-Laws.

Article I. Nominations and Elections. Section 1. The League at its annual meeting shall elect by ballot its officers for the ensuing year, and a majority vote of the members present shall be necessary to election. At the meeting next preceding the annual meeting, the Secretary shall distribute blank tickets on which may be written a choice for each elective office. From the informal ballot so taken the nominating committee shall place in nomination for each office the names of candidates receiving the highest vote. If desired, a second ticket may be made by nominations from the floor at the annual meeting.

Section II. The Nominating Committee shall consist of three members, one elected by the Executive Board, one by the League, with the Second Vice President as Chairman, the members to be elected at the meeting at which blank tickets are distributed.

Article II. Meetings. Section I. The Executive Board shall meet at the call of the President or at the call of three members of the Board. A majority of the members of the Executive Board shall constitute a quorum.

Section II. The Board of Management, which shall consist of the Executive Board, and one chairman from each of the sixteen voting districts, shall meet at the call of the President, or upon the written signature of six members of the Board of Management. Eleven members of the Board of Management shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Article III. Section I. Members shall sign the constitution or send a written request to the Secretary that she shall sign for them.

Section II. No one shall be eligible to vote until she has so declared herself a member in writing.

Article IV. Rules of Order. All meetings of the League and Board of Management shall be governed by Roberts' Rules of Order.

Article V. These By Laws may be amended by the Club at any regular meeting, the proposed amendment having been previously presented at a regular meeting of the Club.

Article VI. The minutes of the meetings of the Executive Board and the Board of Management shall be read at the next general meeting of the League.

Favor Constitutional Convention. Resolved, that the Woman's Civic League of Jacksonville endorses the action of the State Board of the Equal Suffrage Association in their efforts towards securing a Constitutional Convention, and the modification of the amending clause of the present constitution.

Resolved, that the Secretary of the League be instructed to ask the members of the General Assembly from the 45th Senatorial District to do all in their power to secure the passage of these measures.

Mrs. Reid's Resolution. We, friends of good government and women of the Civic League, desire for Jacksonville a clean, honest and progressive city government. As a means to that end we hereby declare our intention of selecting our candidates for the coming election solely "with reference to their qualifications and fitness and for the good of the public service, and without reference to their political or religious faith or party affiliations."

We recognize the commission form of municipal government as an effort to free city elections from the control of party politics, and from old-line political methods. Because of this, and because of the fact that an entire new class of voters are now in training, we deplore the fact that certain candidates at the recent primary felt it necessary to resort to these methods. That, whether in person or through their agents or managers, they made the attempt to influence votes by means of promises of jobs or special favors, by the use of money, liquor, cigars or other "treats" and by the employment of paid workers at the polls. Such methods are a form of bribery and are unquestionably contrary to the spirit of the commission form of government, and they have recently been specifically condemned by the Springfield Election Board as illegal.

In order that we may so far as possible frustrate their object, we believe it right to expose and condemn such and kindred forms of bribery wherever they come to our knowledge; for we feel that any official who secures election by a resort to such means may afterwards employ questionable practices in the administration of his office.

And we further declare our intention to vote and work only for those candidates who before and during the coming election refrain from the use of such methods.

COMING TO THE GRAND

The merry musical melange, "A Topsy Turvy Honeymoon" which comes to the Grand Monday night is said to be the personification of all that is mirthful, melodious and terpsichorean. It seems that nowadays this trinity of diversions forms the salient requisites for purveying amusement to the theatre-going element. With this policy ever in mind, Mr. West has tried to make his latest musical offering a continuity of these three vital ingredients. While not neglecting the story and the plot—for the "Honeymoon" has both in a not too strenuous form—comedy situation and dialogue, dancing specialties and musical numbers follow closely on the heels of each other.

Prominent in the list of entertainers is the winsome prima donna comedienne, Beulah Benton, whose treatment of the simplest ballad makes it a classic; William West, a protege and nephew of George Primrose, shows how possible it is for him to give a life like imitation of Primrose in appearance and motion and there are many other capable artists.

GOMPERS CONFERS WITH UNION LABOR LEADERS IN CHICAGO

Makes Effort to Prevent Threatened Tie-up of Building Operations in Chicago May 1.

Chicago, March 26.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Thomas Williams, head of the buildings trades department of the organization, attended a conference of union labor leaders here today in an effort to bring peace between warring factions and prevent a threatened tie-up of building operations in Chicago. May 1st, when a number of agreements with contractors expire. The threatened tie-up would affect more than 100,000 workmen in 34 trades. The lathers and plasterers already are on strike.

The dispute grows out of the opposition of a faction led by Albert Alex, business agent of the lathers union to the uniform agreement proposed by the Chicago building trades council. Members of the minority faction in the council declare they have ten trades with them in their opposition to the uniform arbitration plan and have demanded that the charter of the Chicago building trades council be annulled and a new organization formed. President Gompers and Thomas Williams listened to statements from both sides in the controversy in executive session. Then President Gompers addressed the conference urging peace and at his suggestion a committee of ten, five from each side was named in an effort to settle the dispute.

President Gompers intended to leave for New York this evening but announced he would remain until Sunday in the hope of bringing the warring factions together in a peace agreement.

CAPT. JOHN KING HAS ANSWERED FINAL CALLWAS VETERAN OF BOTH MEXI-CAN AND CIVIL WARS.

Born in 1827 He Had Seen 88 Years of American Life—A Remarkable Memory Aided Him in Recalling Clearly Events of War Days—Lived in Simple Retiring Way.

At 4:20 p. m. Friday Captain John N. King died at Passavant hospital after a sickness of some months, partial paralysis being the main cause, coupled with the infirmities of advancing age.

He was the oldest child of David and Sarah King and was born in Pittsburgh, June 27, 1827. Public schools were then practically unknown in that region, but his father wanted the children educated and was careful to give them every possible advantage in their childhood.

When John and his next younger brother were in their teens their father was about to send them to a certain school when the great Alexander Campbell, so widely known all over the land and a friend of the family, happened to be at the house and suggested that Mr. King send the boys to a school here.

Capt. John King.

Born June 27, 1827. Died March 26, 1915.

Mr. Campbell, was about to open in Bethany, Virginia, and Mr. King did so and thus John and his brother were members of the first class in the institution and to the day when he was stricken he could name the members of that class. In Bethany too he united with the Christian church under the ministry of Mr. Campbell and was always an admirer of the great man. In 1843 the family moved to Illinois and occupied a farm in the vicinity of New Berlin where the boy worked three years but not caring for a farmer's life he ran away in 1846 to enlist in the army.

Goes to the Mexican War

After leaving home he enlisted in Co D, fourth regiment, Ill. Volunteers, and was sent to the front. He saw service all through that war and was a faithful, gallant soldier, always ready for duty wherever it called and having no fear. He went all through this war and was honorably discharged.

The love of adventure however had such hold on him he was unable to stay at home long, so a few years after the close of the Mexican war he started for the land of gold California. There he had various adventures and was enlisted in the service as commissary at Fort Yuma where he remained a number of years.

When the civil war broke out he again offered his services to his country and the family now show a faded document commissioning him in the commissary department with rank of captain. This document bears the names of Abraham Lincoln and Edwin M. Stanton.

Though in the commissary department he took part in a number of engagements and July 6th, 1865, he was commissioned brevet major for "efficiency and meritorious services," this document bearing the names of President Andrew Johnson and Edwin M. Stanton.

Later he went with the surveyors for four years working on the north-west boundary and after that was sent to Alaska as revenue collector.

After his term of service expired and advancing age rendered him weak he left the service and settled in Walla Walla, Oregon, where he remained a considerable time and then went to the home of his brother, William, in Carthage, Mo. There he remained till the death of his brother when after six months with his brother David in Kansas in June 1911, he came to this city and was a member of the family of his sister, Mrs. Lucie K. Mason on Chambers street, till the time of his fatal illness.

Up to the time of his stroke he retained all his mental facilities to a remarkable degree and was also able to get about quite well. He was very tenderly cared for by his devoted sister and dutiful niece as long as he was with them.

While serving in Alaska he married a Russian lady whose maiden name was Marfosa Neerassoff, though at that time she was the widow of an army surgeon and had a son and a daughter. They were the parents also of one son. The lady's father was a resident of Alaska and an architect planning the Russian Catholic churches in that far away land while it was under Russian dominion and it was in one of these churches that the wedding took place.

His wife and her two children died in Oregon and his son, John David, died at the age of twenty years, a promising young man, while on a visit with his uncle Joseph, in Kansas.

His mother was one of fourteen children and was herself the mother of thirteen. They were John N. Campbell, dead; James of Kansas City, Mo.; Charles S., dead; Benjamin, dead; David, a minister in Carthage, Mo.; William H., dead; Mrs. Lucie K. Mason of this city; Miss Mary of Chicago; Joseph of Wichita, Kansas; Mrs. Anna Fulton, dead; Mrs. Matilda Cox, dead.

In addition to all this family Captain King's parents raised several other children who lived to do their foster parents credit.

Captain King was a man remarkable in many ways. His wonderful memory enabled him to retain vivid recollections of early days and he had a never ending fund of anecdotes and adventures to relate. He was quiet and unostentatious, kind in his ways and gentle toward all whom he met.

The time of the funeral will be announced later.

THE SWEET SINGER

A flood of music rushes from robins and from thrushes, from nightingale and wren, high vocal triumphs tackling—but I prefer the cackling of my old Leghorn hen. All trills and warbles scolding, she cackles in the morning, and does it all by ear; and evermore her singing to me fresh joy is bringing—I know an egg is near. The nightingale and robin have voices sweet and throbbin', but that is all you get; while my old hen, whose carol emerges from a barrel, provides an omelet. My phonograph, on winding, good music will keep grinding, as sweet as that of wrens; it reproduces voices in which the world rejoices—but won't lay eggs like hens. My Leghorn hen is raising a song of humble phrasing, that Melba'd never dare; and shortly I will wander out to the stable yonder, and find some hen-fruit there. The skylark is a dinger, the robin, as a singer, high recognition begs; but by old Leghorn's trilling my breast with rapture's filling, because it means more eggs.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

E. T. Miller and Judge Leeper

By Ensley Moore.

Member of Illinois State Historical Society.

Ebenezer T. Miller was born in Fayette county, Kentucky, February 26, 1801. He came to Edwards county, Illinois in the year 1817, staying there ten years. On the first day of June, 1827, Mr. Miller became a citizen of Jacksonville, to the great advantage of this place. He was married to Miss Lucinda Davis, daughter of Joshua Davis, a prominent citizen of the county, September 23, 1830. They were the parents of five children: Cicero D. born July 29, 1832; Charles T. born Feb. 22, 1835, who went to the vicinity of St. Paul, Minn., in 1858; Frances L., who married Charles King, son of David King, and died May 8, 1860; Joseph H. born March 29, 1841, going in 1853 to Magnolia, Pike county, Miss., where he was engaged in mercantile business. Their youngest son William K., was born Feb. 23, 1851, and is now residing here.

Mr. Miller established the first carding machine in Morgan county, July 1, 1827, on the present site of the Turner-Carrier residence. He was engaged with his brother-in-law, James Parkinson, afterward of Virden, Ill., continued the business one year, and sold out to his partner.

This house of E. T. Miller's on West Court street was the home of the Academy after organization and before chartering. (Photo by C. W. Taylor.)

working at his trade as carpenter and builder, until 1842. After that he farmed for several years. He was postmaster for four years under Presidents Taylor and Fillmore. He was one of the earliest trustees of the Jacksonville Female Academy, and was very efficient and active in the work.

At the meeting of the county court of March 9, 1832, it was decided to erect a new jail, and the clerk of that court was ordered to advertise in the "Illinois Patriot" for sealed proposals for its construction. It was to be of brick and stone, for which a contract was given at a subsequent meeting to Abram De Witt, for about $1,800; the carpenter work to Ebenezer T. Miller for nearly $1,500. The jail was completed in 1833, and stood on the west side of North Main street, a little south of North street.

When the Jacksonville Female Academy was incorporated, January 1835, Mr. Miller was one of the incorporators. This was the first school of any kind to be chartered by the legislature of Illinois.

Mr. Miller served as town trustee from 1839 to 1843; he was at that time a leading carpenter. He was a member in 1840 of that fire company to which about everybody belonged. He was again a town trustee in 1858, and after the city charter, was elected alderman from the third ward in 1869.

At the time the Academy was established, it was housed in the residence of Mr. Miller, on the north side of West Court street, first door east of Church street. This building is still standing.

Trinity Church was organized August 11, 1832, being the first parish belonging to the Protestant Episcopal church in the state of Illinois. Previous to the organization of this parish, no Episcopal clergyman had labored within the limits of the state, and so far as can be ascertained, but few sermons had been preached by Episcopal clergymen in the state. In the spring of 1834, the erection of this church building was commenced, Mr. Miller being the architect. January 9, 1836, the edifice being completed, was consecrated. Mr. Miller was also a vestryman of the church.

Mr. Miller lived last in a handsome residence on South East street near Superior avenue. He was a pleasant man in personal appearance, a good citizen, and highly esteemed in his day and generation.

Miss Frances L. Miller who died soon after her marriage to Mr. Charles King, was one of the most attractive young ladies in Jacksonville, in appearance and character.

sonville National Bank; and was a genial gentleman.
Mr. Ebenezer T. Miller died September 23, 1883, being survived by his wife, Mrs. Lucinda D. Miller, until October 25, 1891.

Judge John Leeper

Dr. L. M. Glover in his Semi-Centennial address, said of the Rev. John Brich: "It was he who, on the 30th of June, 1827, at Judge John Leeper's, a mile southeast of town, after reading the first chapter of the first Epistle to the Corinthians, and delivering a suitable address, proceeded by prayer to organize the church whose fiftieth anniversary we now celebrate, and of whose inheritances we are possessed in the regular line of succession." This referring to the First Presbyterian church of Morgan county, afterwards changed to Jacksonville. Further along, Mr. Glover said: "I will give the order and form of the record of organization, as follows: John Leeper and Fidelity his wife; Edwin A. Mears and Sarah, his wife; James Mears and Polly, his wife, and Harvey McClung, all from the Shoal Creek church; Jas. Kerr and Janet, his wife, from the First Reformed church of New York City; Wm. C. Posey and Sarah, his wife, from brick for the first building (Beecher Hall).

Mr. Leeper was elected a member of the legislature in 1827. He was a Whig in politics and his house was a kind of political headquarters. He also kept a kind of ministers hotel, where all of every denomination felt free to come, and very often preaching meetings were held in his house before there was any church or schoolhouse. His horses and carriages were always ready for the conveyance of those who travelled to and from their appointments in this way and his teams were ever at hand to haul wood to the poor and the preacher.

Mr. Leeper had a farm of nearly 400 acres; but, large as it was he felt it not sufficient for the support of his growing family—being the father of fourteen children. In October, 1831, he moved to Putnam county, Ill., and opened up another large farm; two years later building mills on Bureau creek, which supplied flour and lumber and carding for that new country for many miles around.

"He died December 14th, 1835, from an injury he received while working in his mills. Thus ended the life of a most useful man, beloved and esteemed by all who knew him. President Sturtevant thus spoke of this good man, in an historical address delivered in Jacksonville, in 1856: 'John Leeper was a man whose strict integrity, enlarged public spirit, unaffected piety and comprehensive charity is worthy to be held in remembrance. His removal from this community was a great loss. It was considered a great privilege, in early days, to hold meetings in Judge Leeper's barn.'

The work of the good is to be remembered, and they are to be honored for all time. Certainly Jacksonville was favored in the good, active and enterprising people who laid its foundations, and whose works "do follow" them.

RUB RHEUMATIC PAIN FROM ACHING JOINTS

Rub Pain Right Out With Small Trial Bottle of Old "St. Jacobs' Oil."

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs' Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain and distress. "St. Jacobs' Oil" is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuralgia.

Limber up! Get a small trial bottle of old time, honest "St. Jacobs' Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.—Advertise.

DRYS WILL TRY TO SING WAY TO VICTORY IN CHICAGO

Set of Songs Are Written to Inspire Campaign Which is to Last a Year.

Chicago, Ill., March 26.—A "dry Chicago" campaign to last a year will begin today, when George F. Rinehart, superintendent of the Chicago Dry Federation, will address a public meeting and introduce a set of songs with which it is proposed to inspire the campaign. The music feature of the crusade, it is said, will be emphasized until the last ballot is cast in the April election of 1916.

The following refrain to the tune of "Bringing in the Sheaves" is a sample of the songs which it will be attempted to popularize:

All Chicago dry; all Chicago dry; Pass along the watchword—all Chicago dry.

All Chicago dry; all Chicago dry; Glory hallelujah, all Chicago dry. The dry forces as a matter of strategy decided not to force the issue at this year's election, but fifty or sixty cities and towns of the state will vote on the question next month. Danville is the largest of the cities involved.

A HAPPY CHILD IN JUST A FEW HOURS

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Mothers can rest after giving "California Syrup of Figs" because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomachache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Advertisement.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

BEARISH FOREIGN ADVICES
RULE WHEAT FROM THE START

MORE PROFIT-TAKING AND FOREIGN SELLING HOLD MARKET IN CHECK

Lower Quotations from Liverpool
Give the Bears an Advantage
Right at the Outset—Prices Close Weak at a Decline.

Chicago, March 26.—Assertions that the Turks had disagreed with the Germans and that Roumania and Bulgaria were about to take a hand in the war put the wheat market today under a good deal of selling pressure. As a result prices closed weak at 1 1/2c to 3 1/2c net decline. Other losses for the day were:
Corn, 1/4c to 1/2c and oats 1/4c to 1/2c and provisions gained 10 to 20c.

Bearish foreign advices ruled the wheat market from the start. Lower quotations from Liverpool said to be largely the consequence of expected big shipments from Argentina gave the bears an advantage right at the outset. Not long afterwards came the rumors that Turkey had broken with Germany.
Rallies followed when it was found such reports concerning Turkey were unfounded, if not entirely false, but selling was quickly renewed owing to word of hostilities imminent on the part of Roumania and of Bulgaria as well; with prospects even more threatening as to the attitude of Italy.

Auspicious conditions for the domestic crop were influential as a means of keeping sentiment adverse to the bulls.

Besides cash and export demand was slow both here and at the seaboard. A further source of disappointment to holders was that Russia was to ship 350,000 tons of wheat.

Aggressive selling by pit speculators forced corn down. Wheat weakness formed the chief incentive but in addition eastern demand was poor and Argentine prices at a sharp decline. Oats sagged with corn and wheat. The best buying was attributed to shorts.

COULD NOT WALK

And For Four Years, Could Not Stand Without Support.

Chillicothe, Ohio—"Nothing pleases me more than to speak a word of praise for Cardui, the woman's tonic," says Mrs. Ed Davis, of this town, "for I firmly believe that it snatched me from the grave."

I have been married 14 years, and had two children. After the youngest was born, I was not able to walk, and for four years, I was not strong enough to stand on my feet five minutes at the time, without something to support me.

Nothing seemed to do me any good, until, finally, I commenced using Cardui, the woman's tonic. I only used about four bottles, but, today, I am well, can do my work, and walk as far as I want to.

I can never praise Cardui enough, and my neighbors cannot get done wondering at the change in me. You, too, can depend on Cardui, because Cardui is a gentle, harmless, vegetable tonic, that can do you nothing but good.

Prepared from vegetable herbs, Cardui has a specific effect on the womanly constitution, and puts strength where it is needed.

Try Cardui.

Greatest of All Human Blessings

The most wonderful thing in the world is love expressed in the helpless infant. And among those who are the well known "Mother's Friend."

This is an external application to enable the abdominal muscles to become more pliant, to expand naturally without undue pain from the strain upon cords and ligaments.

In almost every settled community are women who have enjoyed the blessing of this famous remedial and helpful embolism. Their daughters have grown up to learn of its splendid assistance.

Applied as directed upon those muscles involved it soothes the fine nerve fibers, and how to avoid caking breasts. It has been prepared in our laboratory for over four years and is known favorably to most druggists everywhere. Get a bottle to-day and write for book to Bradford Regulator Co., 309 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Be sure to ask for and see that you get "Mother's Friend."

Do not accept a substitute. What is said herein of "Mother's Friend" is but a repetition of the thoughts expressed by thousands of happy mothers who have successfully used this splendid external application.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights. Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Olive Tablets are the successful substitute for calomel. There's never any sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets has a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the most effective remedy for liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the most effective remedy. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

STATE NOTES.

A Strange Case—After a jury had been selected in the Cass County Circuit Court and the case of the People versus George Meyers, alias "Humpy Meyers" was called for trial and all was ready for a week's seige in the hearing of a case of a man charged with murder, suddenly by reason of the fact that the chief witness for the prosecution swore that she had told untruths at the preliminary hearing, and in the absence of any further evidence against the prisoner, the case was dismissed, cause stricken from the docket and the prisoner discharged.

A Regiment of Tramps—In a period of one year just ended over 1,000 tramps have been housed over night in the Princeton jail. Of the number 737 have spent the night there since November 4th. All are required to register, and the book shows there are some extra fine penmen among the hoboes.

In Close Quarantine—Governor Dunne issued a proclamation subjecting Winnebago county to close quarantine of all live stock owing to the fresh outbreak of the foot and mouth disease in four herds of cattle.

Will Contest Pfanschmidt Insurance—The Payson Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company has decided that a suit in court will be necessary before the company will pay the insurance which was carried upon the house and household goods belonging to the late Charles Pfanschmidt, father of Ray Pfanschmidt.

Who Remembers Big Rain?—The U. S. weather bureau at Washington is attempting to verify a clipping from a Philadelphia newspaper dated July 12, 1872, which states that there was a remarkable rainfall in this country on July 3 and 4, 1872, when 12 1-4 inches of rain fell at Jacksonville. Do any of our older readers remember anything about it?—Franklin Times.

Of Course He Didn't Mind—In settling up the estate of Anna Gerjets of Petersburg, it was found that George, her son and heir of the late George Mey, had been declared insane twenty years ago and a conservator appointed. This happened before Mr. Gerjets left home and had been forgotten until the records disclosed the fact, after he had been located in order to obtain his share of the property. A jury had to be empaneled to establish his sanity, and his conservator discharged. At the same time the fact was disclosed that over fifteen years ago Mr. Gerjets had deposited $3,000 in a Springfield bank, which sum with interest awaited his demand. He didn't mind being located under the circumstances.

Millionaire Lumberman Dead—John Stewart, father of State Senator T. B. Stewart, millionaire lumberman, former rival of the late Jacob Weyerhaeuser and owner of a string of banks in the Fox river valley, died at his home in Aurora, aged 89 years. His wealth consisted of vast Wisconsin and southern timber holdings.

Illinois Dairymen in Bankruptcy—Daniel McCart and Ray McCart, dairymen of Madison, doing business under the firm name of McCart Brothers, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the federal court Tuesday. Their liabilities are scheduled at $2646 and their assets at $1999.40.

Dead at the Age of 102—Mrs. Margaret Swinbank, aged 102 years, died at Sycamore, Ill., yesterday at the home of her nephew, William Swinbank. She was considered the oldest person in the state with authentic birthright. She was born at Kendall, Westmoreland, England, April 27, 1813, and baptised there in the Church of England May 13, 1813.

Wants Money for Cars—The General Electric company of New York Friday filed an intervening petition in the circuit court at Springfield, in the case of the Banker's Trust company against the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis railroad, in which the electric company asks $85,000 from the railroad, as part payment due on the four electric motor cars purchased by the road in 1913.

The bill set up that the cars were purchased for $101,700 and that $85,000 is yet due with interest. The intervenors also charge that the bondholders had no legal right to file the receivership proceedings against the road, without trying a civil suit to recover the amounts due, and that the action has worked to the detriment of creditors.

Epidemic of Measles—With the measles epidemic still spreading the public schools of Petersburg have been ordered closed for another week as well as the Sunday schools and churches, for all under 18 years of age while only adults are allowed on the streets of the town.

Ten new cases were reported Monday, three on Tuesday and five on Thursday. As only nine of the earlier victims of the epidemic have been released from quarantine there are now more than 91 cases under treatment.

Pagant Illinois History—Packed houses greeted the production of the pagant of Illinois history given by the school children of the Joliet schools at the Lincoln theatre this morning and afternoon. Tonight's performance is also expected to draw a record breaking crowd.

G. C. Olinger of Franklin made a trip to the city yesterday.

FEDERAL CLUBS MEET TO ADOPT SCHEDULE

RATIFY TRANSFER OF CLUB TO NEWARK

Greater Part of Session is Devoted to Discussion of Legal Matters—Gilmore States Playing Season Will Open April 10.

New York, March 26.—All the Federal League clubs were represented at a special meeting held here today for the purpose of adopting a playing schedule for the coming season. President Gilmore and E. E. Gates of Indianapolis, the league's legal adviser, said tonight that the transfer of the Indianapolis club to Newark, N. J., had been ratified and that the greater part of today's session had been taken up in discussing legal matters in connection with the Indianapolis-Newark transfer as well as the retention of the Kansas City club in Kansas City.

President Gilmore announced that pitcher Fred Falkenberg would remain with the Newark club, but that Benny Kauff, outfielder, would play with the Brooklyn Federals. Third baseman McKechnie, the former Pittsburgh and New York American player, who had been holding out for better terms, signed a Newark contract today. Both Kauff and Falkenberg had been slated to go to Brooklyn.

The arrangements as to the disposal of players seemed to be satisfactory to Harry Sinclair and P. T. Powers, the owners of the Newark club, but the question of exchange of Managers George Stovall and William Phillips between Kansas City and Newark, while under discussion was not settled. Tonight it was said on good authority that Phillips would manage Newark and Stovall probably would play first base under him, leaving an opening for a new manager for Kansas City. It was said that the disposition of those two managers would be settled tomorrow. According to President Gilmore's statement tonight that the playing season will begin on April 10th, the date originally announced.

The schedule will be made public a few days before that date, he added.

THEIR SIXTY-FIRST WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Today and during the few following, children and grandchildren will help celebrate the 61st wedding anniversary of the venerable Peter Obermeyer and wife of Winchester. William F. Obermeyer of St. Louis came up yesterday and today there will gather at the paternal homestead Robert D. of Kansas City; Mrs. H. I. Dunham, C. B. and Anton B. of Chicago; Dr. A. E. of Arcadia; J. A. of this city and Mrs. H. A. McKean of Springfield and Mrs. A. H. Owings already there, will be present. One sister is dead. There are many grandchildren and quite a number of great grandchildren.

Last year there was not a full gathering but from about every descendant a letter was received, the old gentleman one day returning from the post office with 68 missives.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF MISSIONARY WORKERS

Yesterday afternoon the executive committee of the Jacksonville district woman's home missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church met in the Ayers National bank building to discuss the program for the annual gathering to be held at Greenfield some time in May.

There was a good attendance and considerable business was transacted. Those present were Mrs. J. L. Long president; Miss Hazel Knight of Beardstown; Mrs. Dora Lowdermilk, Miss May Lambert and Mrs. Charles Hopper of Jacksonville; Miss Bernice Hurt of Virginia; Miss M. Linda McCarty and Miss Edna Osborne of Murfreesboro.

The meeting was very harmonious and many things for the welfare of the great cause were discussed.

Long ago folks began to wish they had something new to eat—
And now—
Along comes

Krumbles

A new food, a new flavor and a daintiness all its own.

KRUMBLES is made entirely of Wheat—the whole of the wheat berry—granulated, cooked and delicately toasted.

It's a new idea—a new method originated by W. K. Kellogg, of Battle Creek. The equipment is patented.

There can be no imitation of KRUMBLES. Every package of KRUMBLES is sure to be Kellogg's. You will find the signature "W. K. Kellogg" on the package, just as you do on Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes. And the package is the famous damp-proof, air-proof Kellogg's "Waxtite" package.

Serve KRUMBLES all around to the folks at breakfast.

Pour a little cream or milk over it. KRUMBLES has a fine natural sweetness of its own, and the more you chew it the better it tastes.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

$3.00 PER YEAR

Less than One Cent a Day.

There are hundreds of people in this vicinity who have become accustomed to using a tin box in which to keep their valuables, who by using one of our SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES will find they are safer, strictly private and more satisfactory in every way. It requires two keys to unlock the box. The customer has one and the Bank the other, which is the master key. If you should lose your key, and some one else should find it, it would do them no good, because it would require the master key, which we hold before the box could be opened.

There is no better or stronger vault in the United States, and the rate we pay on burglary insurance, which we carry, is the lowest in the country.

Come in and let our vault clerk, Mr. Ewen I. Whitlock, explain.

HELD INTERESTING MEETING AT FIRST WARD SCHOOL

Parent-Teachers' Organization Has Excellent Program—Papers Presented By Mrs. Crawford, Misses Yeck and Mansfield.

A goodly number of parents and friends of the schools gathered at the first ward school building last evening to enjoy a program of unusual interest. The president, Mrs. L. H. Engel, presided and announced the numbers. A piano solo by Miss Thelma Pires was acceptably rendered and then came the minutes and appointment of a nominating committee to report candidates for new officers at the April meeting. The president appointed Mesdames Miley, Souza and Mead.

Miss Obust made some excellent remarks relative to the mill taxation for the tuberculosis cause and was followed by Mrs. W. A. Crawford who read an able paper on the subject of "Relation of Home and School." The paper was full of good ideas and valuable suggestions on an all important subject.

Miss Hazel Yeck then favored the audience with a song admirably sung after which Miss Mansfield, one of the teachers, told of what was being done in the way of sewing in the schools.

Then followed a number which was also of great interest. It was a paper by Miss Yeck, another teacher, who told of the manual training work being done by the pupils. A large table at her side and another along side of the wall were covered with specimens and as she talked two boys stood by the tables and handed up for inspection or passed around the articles the lady was describing. In this manner the various tools and their uses were exhibited; specimens of work shown and materials also.

All the numbers were full of interest and it is certainly safe to say that all who have allied themselves with the worthy organization and all who attended last evening felt well repaid for the time and trouble necessary. The association voted to buy five collapsible tables for the sewing classes and also to purchase two more records for the Victor machine. Following the program last night a Victor concert was given and greatly enjoyed. A portion of Mrs. Crawford's excellent paper was as follows:

The Home and School.

The problem of the relation of home and school is entirely too complex and extensive for adequate treatment in a few minutes talk. It might be well, however, to enter in to a bit of educational history. The great modern movement in education, inaugurated at the turn of the 19th century with the work of Pestalozzi had from the outset as one of its fundamental aims the promotion of cooperation between the home and school. There were phases of the movement in its earliest stages which would justify one in calling it a home education movement. Attention was directed on the one hand, to the strategic position of the mother in the child's education. With the recognition of the importance of the mother and the home came the realization that the mother needed a better method of procedure than that supplied by tradition or suggested by instinct or affection. This was the beginning of the attempt to work out a method of infant education. When on the other hand, attention was directed to the school as an existing institution, it was found to have made little progress for the early years of childhood. The school and the home were both engaged in the task of supervising and directing the education of children.

Froebel's Work.

But in the individual child's life there was a period when the directing hand of the home was withdrawn, and that of the school had not reached out to lay hold and guide. Froebel met and solved this situation by organizing the kindergarten. His work permanently changed our educational system, by extending the school downward to cover the years not specifically under organized educational control and by supplying an educational theory and practice for this period, that has proved itself sound by reason of its capacity for progressive modification to meet the advance of scientific thought as well as the demands of school practice. With Froebel's work accomplished one might well have concluded that the problem of home and school had been solved. The child received its education at home until it entered the kindergarten, when the school assumed control and retained it until formal education ceased, but it was the founding we may say of this present movement of co-operation.

Co-operation Necessary.

Co-operation between home and school is necessary because they are at work on a common problem, and are pursuing a common aim, the education of specific boys and girls. The life of an individual child, is an organic, continuous whole. It passes through countless phases, but these phases are not unrelated. We can not understand or work success, fully with a child if we attempt to regard him as fragmentary, divisible and changing. He may be all this and more at times and for certain purposes. But he is at all times and for our main purposes to be regarded as being what he really is, an organic, continuous whole. Now this integrity and unity of the child's life is not an abstract or logical thing or a name by which we economize effort in our thought of him. He is the same child in the home, in the school, on the playground. So the child, his mind is one just as his body is one. His mental identity is less obvious and tangible than that of his body, but it is also more intimate and real.

Revels of Experience.

So as we learn to know his mind in action, we see that the unity of the body and the unity of the mind are summed up together in experience. I wish I might go into details of the interesting subject but I must pass on to another chapter as it were. We have come to a place where the home can not get along without the school and the school can not get along without the home. The relation of parent and child is on of such tenderness and dependence that both parents should always seek to ennoble and elevate the character of their offspring. Once a child gains the confidence of a parent nothing can ever cause him to doubt or mistrust. So we should teach the child to hate meanness in every form and to love the true and right, and to practice them in thought and act every day. It is said the two forces directly responsible for the development of a boy into a good man and citizen are his home and his school. There is a vast difference in the mental make-up of children; some are naturally quick, restless, enthusiastic and impulsive. Others are always in the sunshine, or far behind a dark shadow. Children of all these divergent types enter the school and several of these most pronounced types may even be found in the same room.

When we hear of the great good brought about through these parent-teacher's associations it should stimulate our ambition and desires to accomplish something in our own little circle and while we can not perhaps do great things at the beginning, we may add a little more each year, and at some time see results which will more than compensate for our time and efforts. May we each and every one feel a personal interest in this organization, first by becoming a member, and then doing our part, however small that may be.

ILLINOIS VICTOR OVER AUGUSTANA

NEGATIVE DEBATING TEAM LOSES AT MONMOUTH.

Illinois College Affirmative Defeats Rock Island Debaters in Close Contest—Augustana's Defeat at Home Gives Monmouth First Rank in Tri-League.

Illinois college won at home and lost abroad last night in the Tri-League debating contest with Monmouth college of Monmouth, Ill., and Augustana college of Rock Island. The Augustana debaters put up an excellent fight, losing their contention by a two-to-one decision. In two unanimous decisions Monmouth college won from Illinois college at Monmouth and Augustana at Rock Island, taking first rank thereby among the three schools of the Tri-League association. The question was "Resolved, that labor unions be exempt from the Sherman anti-trust law, constitutionality waived." Thomas Mangner, Robert Nesmith and Ray H. Bracewell were the affirmative Illinois debaters, who met Augustana last evening in the college chapel. The Augustana representatives were L. E. Jones, Miss Esther Youngberg and Miss Gladys Imleavy.

Attorney J. J. Neigel of Virginia one of the judges, failed to appear last night and in securing a substitute considerable time was lost. W. C. Springgate, principal of the Jacksonville Business college, consented to serve and the contest began almost two hours late. The other judges were Senator E. S. Smith of Springfield and Prof. William Hale of the University of Illinois faculty. President Charles H. Hammelkamp presided and Dr. J. S. Hayden, dean of the college, offered the invocation. After the debate the visitors were entertained at an informal reception in Phi Alpha hall.

Loss to Monmouth. Although losing unanimously in supporting the negative side of the question, the Illinois college men appeared to excellent advantage, according to word last night from Monmouth. The Illinois debaters were Clifford H. Dixon, Clay Apple and Earl Harmon and the Monmouth contestants were Harold McConnell, Harold French and Mr. Bell. The Hon. C. J. Searls of Rock Island was one of the judges. The other two were from the University of Chicago and Knox college, respectively.

The affirmative contended that labor organizations should be exempt from the Sherman Anti-trust Law and placed under restraint of measures that are specific in character and deal directly with the labor problem. The Sherman law has failed to meet labor problems, said they.

Jesus Christ is the only key by which we may have access to God's graciousness, although other methods have been tried. This requires sufficient faith to accept Him as our savior.
